2) With refee. to the above the President, Dy. Sd, Kasaan forwarded submitted the resolution of the Dy. Sd stating that it was not possible to give effect to the above order of govt., unless the frontier Observation Dut is altogether done away with.

3) Thereupon the Govt. again insisted in their order no 160-10-9 & 11-5-12 that effect must be given to their former order, whereupon the President made the necessary provision in the Budget for 1912-13. But the Govt. in sanctioning the retention of the provision proposed for a Sanitary Inspector & the newly Establishment in the Dy. Sd, observed that the same (provision) should not be utilized till Govt. sanction is obtained for the appointment. It is in accordance with this that formal sanction has now been applied for -
